

The Arkansas Cattlemen's Association is in search of a dynamic, energetic, and hardworking Executive Vice President to develop and manage the operations of the association.

The responsibilities of the Executive Vice President include but are not limited to:

- Build and maintain ACA membership across the state of Arkansas
- Editor of the monthly publication Arkansas Cattle Business
- Coordinate and report quarterly to the ACA State Board and Executive Committee
- Attend county association meetings and assist county associations to develop membership and programming to advance the grassroots organization of ACA
- Plan and implement an Annual Convention & Tradeshow for the benefit of members
- Educate state and federal legislators about issues and legislation in accordance with ACA current policy
- Testify in appropriate legislative and regulatory committee meetings to help advance ACA policy and directives for the association
- Represent ACA by attending multiple state and federal level committees that have a bearing on the operations of members
- Coordinate with the National Cattlemen's Beef Association on federal issues and to help develop a strong State & National partnership
- Raise sponsorship funds to help implement programming of the association
- Responsible for the day to day management of office personnel on the state level
- Responsible for the solvency and longevity of the association

The right candidate would have the following traits:

- Must be able to demonstrate good communication skills
- Have a like for the policy development and legislative process
- Be able to travel the state to attend County Association meetings and events
- Be a self-starter and motivator for staff and members alike
- Have the ability to discern producer issues and develop a resolution
- Be willing to stay late and start early for the good of the ACA member

Qualifications for candidates seeking the position include:

- Bachelor's Degree, agricultural field preferred
- Must have hands-on experience in the cattle industry
- Be able to complete the bonding process
- Be willing to relocate to the Central Arkansas area

If you would like more information on the position, please contact ACA President Phillip DeSalvo at (501) 208-6119. If you are interested in applying for the position, please mail a cover letter and resume to:

Phillip DeSalvo, ACA President
173 Miller Lane
Center Ridge, AR 72027

The deadline for resume submission will be October 1, 2023.